What you agree to

When you complete your member information on this site, you are asked to read this waiver and check a box to acknowledge it. By checking that box, you consent to the Memphis Alumni Chapter using your photograph and likeness in chapter communications. That includes this website, the chapter's social media accounts, and printed chapter materials such as programs, newsletters, and event flyers.

This consent is given so the chapter can tell the story of its work, recognize brothers, and share photographs from chapter events. It does not allow a person or organization outside the chapter to use your image, and it does not change the rules that already protect the Fraternity's marks.

The brothers directory

The brothers directory is separate from this waiver. You choose whether your profile appears in the directory, which is visible only to approved, financially active members. You can change that choice on your profile. Officers may hide a photograph or bio if needed.

How to withdraw or ask for a photo to be removed

You may withdraw this consent, or ask that a photograph of you be taken down, at any time. To do so, email the Webmaster (info@greatwhiteagency.com) and the Keeper of Records (KeeperofRecords@kappamemphis.com). Please include your name and, if you can, a link or description of the photograph.

We will remove the photograph from the chapter website and will stop new uses in chapter materials going forward. Printed materials already produced, and posts already published by others, may not be possible to recall. We will take reasonable steps on accounts the chapter controls.
